

CHILD WELFARE DURBAN & DISTRICT NEWSLETTER THE AUTUMN EDITION

Autumn is a second spring when every leaf is a flower! The Autumn Newsletter will be giving you a sneak peek into the events and stories from the last three months. We would like to say Thank You to all our donors, partners and volunteers for their continued support. Your contribution to CWDD enables us to give childhood back to children!

DURBAN METROPOLITAN POLICE GIVING BACK

Hats off to the Durban Metropolitan Police who visited William Clark Gardens/ Othandweni CYCC and created awareness amongst our children on how to avoid being victims of crime. The Metropolitan Police also enjoyed a fun session with our very own in house rock legends as the children sung along to their favourite tunes.

“Every Child loves to get spoilt, not with gifts or money they just want time and attention”

Even the smallest good deed can bring change and positively impact the children in our care by providing a renewed sense of hope. They undoubtedly put smiles across the children's faces. The programme was very exciting and successful.

"Every child should have a caring adult in their lives. And that's not always a biological parent or family member. It may be a friend or neighbour." -Joe Manchin Gardens/Othandweni. The recycling programme allows the organisation to raise funds while educating the children in our care on the importance of recycling and also creates environmental awareness. Join CHILD WELFARE Durban & District on our recycling evolution project and help us fill our Mpack paper bank by giving us any form of paper.

FAREWELL TEA PARTY

Sylveria Mofokeng served 32 years at CHILD WELFARE Durban & District as a Child and Youth Care Worker retired. CWDD would like to thank her for her years of dedication and loyalty to the organisation. We wish her the best in all her endeavours.

Sylveria, May the road rise up to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, May the sun shine warm upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields, may God hold you in the palm of His hand- Irish Blessing

CELEBRATING CWDD SOCIAL WORKERS

The Glenwood Weekly Gazette • 11 March 2016 - Page 04

Celebrating Social Workers!

Mrs Shere Banoo Khan and Jasu Ben Jagjivan

In the light of Social Workers month recognising the many who give their life servicing others. The Glenwood Weekly Gazette journalist Jodie Rose visited Child Welfare Durban and District and spoke to Social workers Jasu Ben Jagjivan and Mrs Shere Banoo Khan to find out more on what it is like to be the one's who put others first before themselves. Child Welfare and District are hosting their Social Workers Day on 15 March to honour their own.

recognised very highly, but it is a simple means of trying to uplift the community, to give children a better future also that she is excited that social workers are finally being acknowledged even if it is in a small way.

The Glenwood Weekly Gazette then spoke to Mrs Shere Banoo Khan who is the Senior Manager of the Community Services Department at Child Welfare Durban and District who has been working at Child Welfare for the past 33 years. Mrs Khan started at Child Welfare by choice straight

“The best way to find you is to lose yourself to the service of others”

CHILD WELFARE Durban & District took the month of March to recognise the many Social Workers within our organisation who work tirelessly and give their life servicing others. We appreciate their selfless giving in providing Child Protection services to vulnerable children.

Our Social Workers conduct Child Protection programmes in the schools, clinics, hospitals and in the communities. Life skills programmes are held for adults and children. Parenting programmes are also held for all parents in the communities.

KEEPING UP WITH OUR SOCIAL WORKERS: AWARENESS PROGRAMS

The organisation has 9 Community Services offices stretching from Wentworth, Lamontville, Newlands East, Sherwood to Umlazi. These offices are within the communities to ensure that our service delivery is accessible to all members of the respective communities.

A FOCUS ON LITRES FOR EDUCATION (L.F.E)

Staff of CWDD and an L.F.E representative embarked on a special campaign at Windermere Centre to create awareness about Litres For Education.

The CWDD staff members spent the morning conducting personal interactions and distributed pamphlets containing in depth information on the L.F.E campaign they even managed to sign up on site.

CWDD is one of the many organisations that benefit from this campaign, with 10 cents per litre of fuel purchased, going towards assisting us care for vulnerable, abandoned and orphaned children in our area of operation. There are several member stations across KZN and more being added on the list, making it easy for the public to support this campaign. If you would like to support this campaign you can follow these very easy steps – To sign up, log onto www.litresforeducation.co.za and nominate CHILD WELFARE Durban & District.

CWDD IN COLLABORATION WITH SUPER HEROS CHARITIES

“SUPERSIZE TO SUPERHERO”

Mano Nayager is the president and founder of SUPER HEROES CHARITIES. He is also a celebrity comedian and a budding entrepreneur who hails from Effingham Heights in Durban – a well-known figure amongst the greater KZN community.

Mano has committed to losing 15 kg over a six-week period, doing what he does best – taking an opportunity to raise money for charity – by getting the public to sponsor every kilogram that he loses – the money raised is going to his selected charity, Child Welfare Durban & District , Edith Benson Babies Home. This is being done under strict supervision and guidance, with the help of his coach – Sue Rankin, which is achievable depending on a number of criteria that he adheres to on the strict diet.

- Starting weight: 90kg
- Time Frame: 6 weeks
- Weight Goal: 75 kg
- Fundraising Goal: R30, 000

How can You assist?

We are looking for sponsorship from the public in a number of ways:

1. To get involved by sponsoring Mano per kilogram – this can be done in denominations of R20/kg; R50/kg; R100/kg; R200/kg R500/kg and R1, 000/kg – you will be able to pledge online and funds will be deposited directly into the CHILD WELFARE Durban & District bank account using a reference number that can be obtained by contacting the Superheroes Charities.
2. From there you can track Mano daily on Facebook hearing about his feelings, frustrations, comical comments and, ultimately, his loss. All sponsors will be loaded onto our Facebook page – SUPERHEROES CHARITIES
3. You can also benefit by sponsoring your services or product – for this you will be entitled to advertise on the Superheroes Charities Facebook page.
